Tax Collector Mike Fasano's Five Offices to Feature "Seniors in Service" as January's Charity of the Month

The Pasco Tax Collector's Office will be featuring Seniors in Service as the Charity of the Month in January 2025. This program, which has served seniors for 40 years, helps older Floridians by helping them use their skills and abilities to provide volunteer work in service of the most vulnerable members of our community.

"There are thousands of seniors in Pasco County who wake up every day feeling alone and forgotten," comments Ann Wilkinson, Community Engagement Coordinator for Seniors in Service. "At Seniors in Service, we're on a mission to change that. Our specialty is helping older adults find meaningful volunteer opportunities where they can use their skills and experience to uplift our community. We have over 1900 senior volunteers who are living with purpose while feeding hungry families, mentoring children, providing companionship to homebound elders, and supporting local veterans. When you donate to Seniors in Service, you're helping to fight loneliness and isolation for seniors AND providing vital support for our entire community."

“It is wonderful that Seniors in Service helps people who have gained so much life experience to continue to contribute the best of themselves to their neighbors and others in need,” remarks Tax Collector Mike Fasano. “It is an honor to assist our seniors in any way possible. I am so pleased that this fine organization exists to provide opportunities for those who want to continue to be active in their community. I encourage anyone who would like to help our seniors find a way to be productive to consider donating to this special and unique charitable organization.”
