Tax Collector Mike Fasano's Offices Recently Featured The Good Samaritan Clinic as Charity of the Month

During this past November, the Pasco Tax Collector's Office featured The Good Samaritan Health Clinic as its the Charity of the Month. The Good Samaritan Health Clinic is an important provider of health care to those most in need in Pasco County.

"We are grateful to Mike Fasano and the Pasco County Tax Collectors office for the opportunity to be November's Charity of the Month," remarked Mike Singer, Executive Director of the Good Samaritan Health Clinic of Pasco. "But most importantly, we are thankful to the many citizens of Pasco County who stepped up and donated to Good Sam, especially coming off this challenging hurricane season. These gifts allow us to fill prescriptions, provide diagnostic testing and purchase medical supplies. All our services are free to Pasco County residents who are uninsured and have limited income. These funds will help keep people healthy and out of Emergency Rooms."

"The Good Samaritan Health Clinic provides a needed service to those who are uninsured or under-insured," comments Tax Collector Mike Fasano. "Our five tax collector offices are proud to donate $5,000 to Good Samaritan to support the operation of this needed program. So many people do without proper health care. Good, locally run programs such as Good Samaritan fill in the gaps and help so many people receive the care and attention they need. I would like to thank everyone in our community who donated to provide more services to more of their fellow community members here in Pasco County."
