REMINDER – Essay Contest Ends March 12 at 5:00 PM

Pasco County Tax Collector Mike Fasano announces that his office is accepting entries in a month -long essay contest. The competition began February 8, 2021 and will end March 12, 2021 at 5:00 PM. The essay contest is for Pasco County's high school students (Grades 9-12). Students of Pasco's public/ charter, private, parochial, non-public and home schools are all welcome to participate.

In 500 words or less students will answer the question: "When unexpected events occur such as COVID-19 or a devastating storm, people are often negatively impacted. Some may lose their jobs, their homes or experience other setbacks in their lives. Keeping in mind that funds expended by government (local, state or federal) must come from somewhere, what do you think government should do to assist people to get through these challenges?"

Entries will be judged by a panel of directors from the Pasco County Tax Collector's Office. Entries will be reviewed on how well the student communicates his/ her response to the question as well as overall essay structure, appearance and readability.

"We have had a wonderful response to the contest in previous years," states Tax Collector Mike Fasano. "I have no doubt that we will receive some excellent essays again this year. Pasco County has some of the state's best and brightest students. The student who writes the winning entry will receive a $300 gift card. I am looking forward to the day later this spring when I am able to hand this wonderful prize to the student who prepares the best essay."

Students in public/ charter schools are asked to submit their essays to their principal, who will forward them to the tax collector's office.
